

Mila Mafanya Professional Profile

Mila Mafanya attended St Andrew's Prep in Griffin House from 1990-1994 before advancing to St Andrew's College in Espin House from 1995-1999. He was the inaugural recipient of the Harry Birrell Scholarship during his time at St Andrew's College. He currently serves as the secretary of the Old Andean Club's Western Cape Branch.

He is the Chief Executive Officer, Head of Equities and an Executive Director at Afena Capital. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charter holder and holds a Bachelor of Business Science degree majoring in Actuarial Science from the University of Cape Town (UCT).

He was the Treasurer of the Association of Black Securities & Investment Professionals' (ABSIP) Western Cape Chapter and is also a member of ABSIP's Investment Think Tank. He sits on the board of directors of the Association for Savings and Investment South Africa (ASISA) and is Chairperson of the ASISA board sub-committee for Transformation, Skills Development & Education.

He is also a founder member of a voluntary non-profit organization, Fun Learning for Youth (FLY), which provides tutoring services to 180 high school students from disadvantaged communities. He is a board member of non-profit organisation Tekano Health Equity (Tekano), sits on the Tekano board's Finance & Investment Committee and Chairs the Investment sub-committee of the Tekano board.